Three fundamental stages in human life rationally introduced by Toshiyuki Namai, cultivation, civilization and naturalization

Toshiyuki Namai

What is the best way to live every day every night in the whole of your life? Is there any way rationally organized for you to live well as a sapient existent dwelling here on earth?

Supernaturally, "reason" (the ability to think) was given to you. You have the totally different quality of living with or without having the grasp of this reality as one of sapient beings.

It goes without saying that reason you have is not active reason you personally got by yourself. It is "passive reason" you received as a gift given.

The two concepts introduced and lectured upon already by your instructor, Toshiyuki Namai, namely "subtle taste" and "elegant simplicity" should be susceptibly recognized for purpose of reaching the ultimate spiritual state as a human being what is called "the ultimate naturalization" as a quintessential question through holding communion with you individually.

Through holding communion with you, you will be possibly all set to hold communion with nature for the sake of realization of the ultimate naturalization in you. The ultimate naturalization is eventually achieved after experiencing cultivation and civilization in your life.

As for you to smoothly think about this matter from the "stereotypical process," the following process shall be kindly introduced.

As to the whole of your life, it is necessary for you to cultivate yourself first, civilize yourself second and naturalize yourself third. Those three stages are fundamental stages for all human beings who wish to live well as sapient existents by using passive reason received as a gift given.

Concretely, I hereinafter guide you to the following process for you to be a genuinely rational existent dwelling here on earth.

Three fundamental stages for you rationally guided are as follows:

1 cultivation (cultivating yourself)

You need to cultivate yourself through receiving necessary education as for your first fundamental stage in your life.

2 civilization (civilizing yourself)

It is necessary for you to be civilized in the existent civilization already made in the human history.

3 naturalization (naturalizing yourself)

The wise eventually find a way to naturalize themselves. It means they rationally find the ultimate goal in their life by using reason given.

Necessary guidance shall be reasonably given to you regarding the above three fundamental stages in the lesson.
