

July 22, 2017

Tokyo, Japan

It is a sapient idea for you to supernaturally breathe as nobody special in the immense distances of space for the sake of your spiritual consummation expected in the future.

Toshiyuki Namai

It is undoubtedly true that no one can control his/her destiny at all. It means the destination imagining in your heart is bound to be controlled by yourself provisionally.

No one pushes you to go (advance) anywhere against your will. Surely, you have a clear right to decide anything you need at your discretion.

Usually, most of the people zealously wish to possess what they daily need in order to reasonably live materially. Accordingly, when it is necessary for them to possess some material things, there is nothing wrong in doing so according to their necessity. Because they need to live reasonably here in this material society.

This time, I'd like you to especially think of some important aspects regarding the matter (concept), "possession."

Quintessentially, material possession (what you materially possess more than you just need) critically dulls "sensitivity" of human beings. In other words, excessive possession of money dulls common sense, moral standard and the value of the things human beings basically should have in the society built.

Now, I'd like to ask you a question. Have you ever thought about the following matter? If you consummately have a lot of material things, you don't have any freedom spiritually yourself at all. Because you unfortunately limit your action for purpose of protecting those things you materially have in this unclean material world stereotypically poisoned.

On the other hand, if you don't have anything materially, you don't have to limit your action. Because there is nothing you have to protect materially. It means you can do anything you like every day.

Eventually, no possession can be treated as "real possession." Through studying this reading material, you are cerebrally guided to know that you need to be cultured enough to recognize and understand this spiritual stage introduced. I really hope that you are "a prehensile individual" regarding this spiritual stage introduced which is necessary for you to dramatically improve the quality of your spirit by inches for your intellectual sake now and in the future.

You are privileged to feel that "no possession is amazingly romantic." I positively emphasize that to realize the gorgeousness of no possession radiantly guides you to grasp the wonderfulness and romance of the immense distances of space. It is a sapient idea for you all to supernaturally breathe as nobody special in the immense distances of space for the sake of your spiritual consummation in the future together with me. You will know your righteous direction gradually through breathing with me supernaturally.

It goes without saying that you really don't have to plebeianize your ideal in vain. What you absolutely need is that you must make sense to breathe as nobody special here in cosmic space. Doing so teaches you to live better as one of human beings dwelling here on earth.

You are rationally guided to find the righteous direction for you to be a genuine rational existent standing upon this planet in the future in the process to receive the lessons here in this Ginza Sanctuary.

No one wishes to go to the iniquitous direction here in this Ginza sanctuary. Likewise, no one wishes to waste time limited here. Constructively, I'd like to tell you that there is no second to waste for the rest of your life given.

Civilization marches on silently. I'd like you to continue studying various matters in the lessons rationally given. You have your life once. Everything regarding the quality of life absolutely hinges upon how you live rationally every day.